Dear Carolyn,

I wanted to take a moment to thank you for your marketing coaching. I found your ideas extremely helpful and uplifting at a time when my business needed clearer focus and direction. Your wealth of ideas, positive attitude, and quiet encouragement helped my business profits soar in a matter of weeks.

I am continuing to use your marketing strategies to the company's great benefit, and I would be happy to talk with any prospective clients about what you can do to help them, both on a personal and professional level.

Thanks for all!

Debbie Davis, President
